B. Data Use Conditions

1. Permitted use. Data may be used only for the approved non-commercial academic research project. Commercial use or operational surveillance requires separate written permission.

2. Privacy. The recipient must not attempt to identify or re-identify participants, link samples to external identity records, or disclose information that could identify individuals.

3. No redistribution. The recipient must not publish, sell, upload, sublicense, or share restricted CSCZED data outside the approved research group. Other researchers must apply separately.

4. Data security. Restricted data must be stored securely with access limited to authorized project members. The provider must be informed promptly of unauthorized access, loss, or disclosure.

5. Publications. Research findings may be published with appropriate citation. Restricted samples or identifying content must not be released. Deviations from the official evaluation protocol should be disclosed.

6. Compliance and termination. The recipient must follow applicable laws and institutional ethics requirements. The provider may revoke access for violations; restricted data must then be returned or deleted as instructed.

7. Retention and responsibility. Restricted data should be deleted when no longer needed for the approved project, unless retention is legally required. Data are provided for research purposes without warranties.

C. Declaration and Signatures

I confirm that the information supplied is accurate and that I have read and agree to the data-use conditions above.
